

Colombian electrical distribution box manufacturing

Article Overview

Key Colombian manufacturers of electrical distribution boxes include Ectricol S.A.S., Soldexel S.A.S., and Magnetron S.A.S., each offering certified, high-quality solutions for industrial and energy sectors.

Ectricol S.A.S.

Ectricol is a leading Colombian company specializing in low- and medium-voltage electrical switchboards, switchgear, and power centers. They have extensive experience in electrical infrastructure across Colombia and are recognized for their contributions to renewable energy projects, with an installed capacity of 600 MW in 60 solar energy projects . Their products are certified under NTC ISO 9001:2015 and RETIE, ensuring compliance and safety. Ectricol also holds UL certifications for international export and is a Siemens Technology Partner, licensed to manufacture Sivacon S8 Motor Control Centers (MCCs), .

Soldexel S.A.S.

Soldexel focuses on manufacturing boxes and conduit accessories for both hazardous (NEMA 7 - explosion-proof) and non-hazardous (NEMA 4X - weatherproof) environments . They serve industries such as hydrocarbons, energy, and mining, providing certified electrical products nationally and internationally. Soldexel emphasizes high-quality manufacturing standards, technical support, and continuous staff training to maintain excellence in their products and services
