

Communication optical cable manufacturers and cables

Article Overview

Top communication optical cable manufacturers include Corning, Prysmian, OFS, Fujikura, and OCC, recognized for high-performance fiber optic solutions and global market presence.

Global Leaders in Fiber Optic Manufacturing

Corning Inc. is a pioneer in fiber optic technology, holding approximately 10.4% of the global market. The company specializes in low-loss, bend-insensitive optical fibers and invests heavily in R&D, including 800G Ethernet solutions for next-generation networks. Corning serves telecoms, data centers, and enterprise networks with production facilities in the U.S., China, and Europe . Prysmian Group, headquartered in Italy, is a global leader with a 15% market share. It provides extensive cable solutions, including submarine and fire-resistant fibers, and is actively expanding high-capacity networks and 5G infrastructure worldwide . OFS Optics, a subsidiary of Furukawa Electric, focuses on advanced fiber optic technologies for telecommunications, medical imaging, and defense. With U.S.-based manufacturing, OFS supports domestic supply chain requirements and high-performance data center applications . Fujikura and LS Cable & System are major Asian manufacturers, producing fiber optic cables, telecommunications equipment, and automotive components. They serve markets in Japan, South Korea, North America, and Europe, driving innovation in high-speed and long-haul networks . Optical Cable Corporation (OCC), based in the U.S., offers fiber optic and copper cables for broadcast, enterprise, industrial, and data center applications. OCC emph...
