

Direct Sales of Distribution Box Rails

Article Overview

You can obtain direct manufacturer quotations for distribution box rails from specialized suppliers offering customizable, factory-direct enclosures and rails.

Key Manufacturers and Suppliers

- SELHOT Electric SELHOT offers IP65/IP66 waterproof plastic distribution boxes made from UV-resistant PC/ABS materials. They provide customization options for color, material, opening positions, flame retardancy, and wiring methods. Factory-direct quotations are available, and their team has over 20 years of experience in designing and manufacturing weatherproof enclosures suitable for solar, outdoor lighting, irrigation, and marine applications .
- E-Abel E-Abel provides a wide range of electrical enclosures, cabinets, and distribution boxes in stainless steel, aluminum, and galvanized steel. They emphasize easy installation, accessibility, and industrial-grade durability. Their sales team can provide pricing and delivery information tailored to your project requirements .
- Global Sources Manufacturers Global Sources lists numerous wholesale power distribution box manufacturers offering factory-direct prices, low minimum order quantities, and OEM/ODM services. Products include sheet metal fabrication, laser cutting, bending, welding, and large distribution boxes suitable for industrial applications .
- DirectIndustry This platform features over 25 sizes and 150 standard enclosures made from ABS or polycarbonate, including IP65/IP66 waterproof and EMC-shielded options. Many enclosures are designed for easy front access, modularity, and industrial safety compliance, and manufacturers can provide direct quotations for bulk or customized orders
