

Fiji Optical Cable Manufacturer Direct Supply Company

Article Overview

Dominion Cables and Datec Fiji are leading providers of optical and fiber optic cabling solutions in Fiji, offering both manufacturing and direct supply services.

Local Manufacturers and Suppliers

Dominion Cables is a premier manufacturer and supplier of cables in Fiji and the Pacific region. They produce a wide range of cable solutions, including fiber optic cables, and are ISO 9001 certified, ensuring high-quality standards and compliance with international quality management systems. Dominion Cables also exports to the Pacific and beyond, making them a reliable source for both local and regional projects (Dominion Cables) . Datec Fiji specializes in fiber optic cabling and network services, providing end-to-end solutions including design, installation, splicing, testing, and maintenance. Their technicians are trained in both fusion and mechanical splicing, and they serve a variety of sectors such as healthcare, government, industrial sites, and educational institutions. Datec also offers emergency repair services and full IT and e-business solutions, making them a comprehensive service provider for optical networks in Fiji (Datec Fiji) . VT Solutions Ltd provides cabling solutions including fiber optics, Cat 6/6A, coaxial, and data cables. While primarily focused on installation and network infrastructure, they also supply cables directly to businesses and construction projects, offering scalable and wireless network solutions (VT Solutions) .
