

Nordic long-span cable tray companies

Article Overview

Nordic Wire Tray and Meka are leading Nordic manufacturers offering high-quality long-span cable tray systems suitable for industrial and commercial applications.

Nordic Wire Tray (NWT)

Nordic Wire Tray specializes in wire tray systems under the X-Tray brand, designed for long-span installations with the market's longest bracket distances, reducing the number of supports and installation costs . Key features include:

- Customizable cable ladders for various cable sizes and load requirements
 - High-quality materials suitable for harsh environments, ensuring durability and long lifespan
 - Fast and easy installation with fewer parts and intuitive design
 - Flexible production allowing project-specific customization in their modern machine park
 - Compliance with IEC 61537 standards for cable tray systems
 - Wide range of accessories including brackets, mounting tools, and hygienic options
- NWT has over 20 years of experience in the Nordic market, providing tailored solutions for projects of all sizes and ensuring rapid delivery from stock .

Meka

Meka is another prominent Nordic manufacturer with over 40 years of experience in cable support systems . Their offerings include:...
