

Price of Network Cabinet Brackets

Article Overview

Network cabinet brackets typically range from €10–€50 per pack, depending on size, material, and included hardware.

Pricing Examples

- Amazon.de offers a pack of 5 cable management brackets for network cabinets at approximately €15–€20, including 10 screws and nuts for mounting on 19-inch racks . These brackets are made of high-quality steel and are suitable for structured cabling in server and network cabinets.
- Specialized suppliers like LANshack and CablesAndKits provide wall-mount and rack-mount brackets, with prices varying based on size, weight capacity, and design. Wall-mount brackets for network racks typically start around €20–€30 for a single bracket and can go higher for heavy-duty or adjustable models .
- Network Supply offers a range of professional-grade brackets and racks, where prices for individual brackets or small sets can range from $15–$50, depending on the material and intended use .

Factors Affecting Price

- Material and Build Quality: Steel brackets are more durable and costlier than plastic or aluminum options.
- Bracket Type: Wall-mount brackets are generally less expensive than full rack-mount cable management kits.
- Included Hardware: Packs that include screws, nuts, and mounting accessories may cost slightly more but provide better value.
- Quantity: Buying in packs (e.g., 5–10 brackets) often reduces the per-unit cost....
