

Price of Network Cabinet Side Panel Samples

Article Overview

Network cabinet side panel samples typically range from $20 to $100 per panel, depending on size, material, and brand.

Overview of Pricing

The cost of side panels for network cabinets varies based on factors such as rack size (e.g., 6U, 12U, 15U), material (steel, aluminum, or acrylic), and manufacturer. For example, smaller wall-mount panels for mini server racks may start around $20-$30, while full-size panels for 12U or larger enclosures can cost $50-$100 or more . Premium brands like Rittal, Hammond, or Tripp Lite may be priced higher due to durability and protection ratings .

Where to Purchase Samples

- Newark Electronics offers a wide range of side panels from top manufacturers, with fast quotes and same-day dispatch, making it suitable for obtaining sample panels quickly .
- eBay provides individual side panels and small sets for mini or full-size racks, often with discounts or coupons, which can be ideal for testing before bulk purchase .
- Amazon lists network cabinets with included side panels, which can serve as sample units for evaluation, especially for wall-mount or small enclosures .
- Tameson and Rittal provide specialized side and back panels for enclosures, with engineering support and fast delivery, suitable for professional or industrial applicat...
