

What does Angola distribute

Overview

In 2024, the top exports of Angola were Crude Petroleum ($32. 51B), Special Purpose Ships ($1. 69B), Spain. Angola's business environment is still maturing at just 20 years post-civil war. As a result, distribution channels for most products and services are limited to a handful of key players. Luanda, the capital city, is estimated to have some 8 million residents, and is followed by a limited number of. Luanda, the capital city, holds 25% of the population followed by a limited number of secondary cities: Benguela/Lobito, Huambo, and Lubango, with Soyo and Cabinda as oil industry-focused cities. According to Euromonitor, between 70% and 80% of trade in the food market is undertaken by the informal. Angola has a semi-planned economy, in which central planning directs the economy with the participation of private enterprises. The economy remains heavily influenced by the effects of four decades of conflict in the last part of the 20th century, the war for independence from Portugal (1961-75). Real GDP growth: 4. Growth drivers: Mainly the non-oil sector, with agriculture and fisheries' share of GDP rising from 6.
