

Where are the manufacturers of pigtail jumper cables in South Africa

Article Overview

Pigtail jumper cables in South Africa are manufactured and supplied by companies such as Trysome Auto Electrical Engineering, Flexicor Cables, Aberdare Cables, and Mwanga Afrika Cables.

Key Manufacturers

1. Trysome Auto Electrical Engineering (Pty) Ltd Trysome specializes in automotive electrical products, including jumper cables and pigtail jumpers. They provide a range of power supply and battery connection solutions suitable for vehicles and industrial applications, with multiple branches across South Africa for distribution and support .
2. Flexicor Cables (Pty) Ltd Flexicor is a major South African cable manufacturer producing copper and aluminium conductors, braids, and flexible cables. While primarily focused on industrial and power transmission cables, they also manufacture specialized connectors and accessories that can include jumper cable components .
3. Aberdare Cables Aberdare is one of Southern Africa's largest cable manufacturers, with three manufacturing sites in Pietermaritzburg, Gqeberha, and Gauteng. They produce a wide variety of cables and electrical interconnection products, which can include jumper cables and related accessories for automotive and industrial use .
4. Mwanga Afrika Cables (Pty) Ltd Mwanga Afrika Cables manufactures medium and high voltage cables, including copper and aluminium conductors. While their focus is on power transmission, they also supply custom cable solutions that can be adapted for jumper cable applications
