

Where can I buy alloy plastic cable trays

Article Overview

Alloy plastic cable trays can be sourced from specialized suppliers offering fire-resistant, corrosion-resistant, and customizable options suitable for industrial and commercial applications.

Recommended Suppliers

- HBCN Solucent HBCN Solucent offers macromolecule alloy cable trays, which are designed to replace steel with high-performance plastics. These trays are fire-resistant, acid- and alkali-resistant, corrosion-proof, lightweight, and long-lasting, meeting UL568 standards and certified by the China Quality Certification Center (CQC). They also provide customized solutions for special applications and are widely used in the US, France, and Southeast Asia .
- RS Hong Kong RS Hong Kong supplies a wide range of electrical cable trays, including heavy-duty and modular systems. While primarily metal-based, they also carry plastic cable management trays and accessories like grommets and markers. Their online platform allows you to browse dimensions, sizes, and configurations suitable for your project .
- Accio Accio specializes in durable, UV-resistant plastic cable trays, including fiberglass-reinforced plastic (FRP) and nylon options. Their products are flame-retardant, corrosion-resistant, and suitable for indoor and outdoor use. Accio emphasizes technical specifications, such as load capacity, bend radius, temperature rating, and compliance with standards like NEMA VE 1, IEC 61537, and UL94 .
- McMaster-Carr McMaster-Carr offers a large selection of over 850 cable tray products, including plastic trays in various sizes and styles. They provide fast delivery options and detailed product specifications, making it convenient for both small and large-scale installations
