

Where in Pakistan can I find manufacturers of trapezoidal cable trays

Article Overview

Alfazal Engineering, Power Engineering, Pemepk, and EPEPK are among the leading manufacturers of trapezoidal cable trays in Pakistan.

Alfazal Engineering

Alfazal Engineering is recognized for high-quality, durable, and customizable cable trays, including trapezoidal, perforated, ladder-type, and wire mesh trays. They use advanced machinery such as CNC systems and hydraulic press brakes to ensure precision and defect-free production. Materials offered include galvanized steel, stainless steel, and powder-coated finishes, suitable for harsh industrial environments. Alfazal also provides custom design services and installation support across Pakistan, making them a reliable choice for industrial and commercial projects .

Power Engineering

Power Engineering specializes in a wide range of cable trays, including trapezoidal and ladder types, with customization options for length, width, and rung spacing. They provide support structures, bends, reducers, clamps, and conduit accessories, ensuring a complete cable management solution. Their products are designed to meet environmental and corrosion-resistant requirements, making them suitable for industrial applications
