

Where to buy 2-core OPGW fittings

Article Overview

You can purchase 2-core OPGW fittings from specialized manufacturers such as RIBE, AFL Global, ZTT, Prysmian, and Huaneng, all offering high-quality connectors, joint boxes, and installation accessories.

Recommended Suppliers

1. RIBE® (OPTOFIT® OPGW Accessories) RIBE provides a full range of OPGW fittings, including joint boxes, termination units, and adapters suitable for various cable diameters. Their products are designed for IP67 protection, ensuring water and humidity resistance, and feature aluminum cast housings for mechanical durability. RIBE also offers installation sets and training for technicians, making them suitable for professional deployment of 2-core OPGW cables (RIBE®) . 2. AFL Global (Apex® OPGW Connector Kits) AFL Global offers Apex OPGW Connector Kits, which are durable and easy to install. These kits are designed for reliable connections in power transmission and telecommunications networks, ensuring long-lasting performance for 2-core OPGW cables (AFL Global) . 3. ZTT International ZTT provides a variety of OPGW fittings, including stainless steel tube, aluminum-covered, and aluminum tube OPGW accessories. They supply joint boxes, distribution boxes, and connectors with advanced anti-corrosion protection. ZTT also offers customized solutions and technical support for installation (ZTT International) . 4. Prysmian Group Prysmian offers complete OPGW systems, including fittings, joint boxes, optical distribution frames (ODF), and installation services. Their solutions are tailored for specific project requirements, making them suitable for professional 2-core OPGW installations (Prysmian) . 5. Huaneng Fittings Huaneng manufactures OPGW hardware fittings with features like spiral cable clamps, corrosion resistance, and easy manual installation....
