

Which manufacturers produce fiber optic corrugated pipe equipment

Article Overview

Leading manufacturers of fiber optic corrugated pipe equipment include Qingdao Daaote, Qingdao Comrise Machinery, Drossbach, Rosendahl Nextrom, and ZhongyunTech, offering complete extrusion lines and multi-channel COD pipe solutions.

Key Manufacturers and Their Offerings

1. Qingdao Daaote Plastic Extrusion Machine Co., Ltd. Specializes in 90mm, 75mm, and 110mm flexible HDPE COD corrugated optic/fiber ducts. Their machines produce multi-channel fiber optic protection tubes with built-in inner ducts, allowing for quick installation and reduced trench work. The equipment emphasizes high flexibility, low friction, and long service life, suitable for telecom backbone applications . 2. Qingdao Comrise Machinery Co., Ltd. Offers COD corrugated multi-channel bundle pipe equipment, HDPE silicon core pipe machinery, and other fiber optic pipe production lines. Their machines support pre-sales consultation, technical guidance, and after-sales services including installation, commissioning, and maintenance. They focus on high-speed production and smooth inner and outer walls for easy construction . 3. Drossbach A German manufacturer with over 55 years of experience, Drossbach provides single-layer to four-layer corrugated pipe machines for various applications, including cable protection. Their equipment features interchangeable tools, high-speed extrusion, remote monitoring, and easy maintenance, with global after-sales support . 4. Rosendahl Nextrom Specializes in fiber optic cable production technologies, including fiber drawing, coating, ribbon making, and loose tube produ...
